Superestrella CLAUDIA LENTI regresa a La Habana

by Lazaro Martinez

Superstar, Claudia Lenti returns to Cuba after her last visit which was not such a pleasant one. Lenti ended her relationship with long-time boyfriend, Reinier Rojas in 2019 after rumors emerged that he was dating another woman. She never denied her love for the island and has visited countless times, yet this one seems to be a come-back from her failed relationship. After so many years of staying away, she is coming back for professional reasons. Her management team has already sent out press releases to all the Cuban newspapers advising of her arrival. Cuban authorities have also been made aware so that they can ensure her safe entry into the country given her worldwide fame.

Although she is always accompanied by her bodyguards, her team advises that one can never have too much protection in these types of situations. People often flock to her for autographs, hugs and although most fans are friendly, some can get aggressive. The Cuban authorities have already promised to protect her.

Lenti has apparently healed from her last relationship and focused on her well-being and peace. There are no persons of interest in the picture, which is odd for such a beautiful and talented woman, but then gain, just look at her last experience with Rojas.

That being said, Havana is a city of love and you never know what can happen!

Lenti will most probably be spotted in Havana's signature places such as La Bodeguita Del Medio, La Floridita, 1830 and Speakeasy Habana. She will also be spending her birthday here, so we are eager to see how she will celebrate! We reached out to Rojas for comment but without success.

¿Dónde se quedará?

The singer will be staying in her Havana loft, one of her many homes across the world. Although her homes in Calabria, Los Angeles, Miami, New York and Dubai are of a much larger scale, Lenti mentioned in her last interview with the NY Times that she prefers her lofts in Havana and Rome. "Rome is the city of echoes, dreams and illusions; Havana is the key to those dreams."

Grabando el video Sin Querer

Camera crews have been preparing for weeks before the Superstar's grand arrival. Although she has her own team of videographers, Lenti often contracts Cubans for her projects as a way of highlighting their incredible talent and capabilities; something that "they don't get enough credit for" - says the singer. The song, Sin Querer, has some hints of her past relationship but neither Lenti nor her team have confirmed or denied it.

The world star has quite the history with different music genres. Although she has been criticized for not sticking to one type of genre, Lenti has often defended her choices by claiming that, “Music should never be limited, but only unlimited. The only way to break a mold, be great and create new sounds is by embracing every inspiration that comes.” One of her greatest inspirations and testaments to her belief is Nathy Peluso. Peluso has released various albums including Jazz, Rap, Salsa, Reggaeton, Bachata, etc.

Claudia says that Peluso’s relentless courage has fuelled her and continues to fortify what she feels when it comes to her love for Salsa. Lenti has been criticized because she is not Latina, but rather Italian; also for her tone, and for her lively performances to name a few critiques. The singer has the outmost respect for her peers, the Salsa greats and her favourites such as Celia Cruz, Habana D’Primera, Gilberto Santa Rosa, Oscar de Leon, Grupo Niche, Marc Anthony, and the list goes on. She is not trying to be them, but rather draws inspiration from them to create a world more inclusive while giving all the credit to Salsa, “y salsa na’ma.” Lenti believes that the greatest composers and singers that have blessed the earth are those who were not afraid to color outside the lines or limit themselves to one genre; i.e. QUEEN

AHORA SI!

After years of hard work and dedication, Lenti feels she is reaching her goals and is living her dreams just as she imagined. Following the release of No Quiero Mas in 2024 (a song that was recorded in 2022), she has been eager to keep releasing salsa’s among other latin genres.

The singer’s life has been full of ups and downs and it is in this dichotomy and juxtaposition, that the star has learned to embrace it all. Furthermore, she feels that she has finally crossed over the line of doubt that can cast an entire shadow on one’s own light.

As opposed to looking at life and saying, “no quiero mas”, she now answers, “ahora si!”. This is Claudia Lenti’s crossover, the moment that will mark her career for life - and she knows it.

Dicen que su marco de cama es de oro

Although it has been rumoured that the superstar’s bed frame is made out of 24k gold, we can confirm that these rumours are false. We spoke with an insider at Lenti’s Enterprises, who told us that the star is too down to earth and real to waste money on such a useless luxury. The star prefers to put her money towards charities. She plans to build a shelter for abuse victims that will serve as a rehabilitation center and provide jobs to those very victims. “The only way to one’s freedom, is through one’s own independence” -The Freedom Magazine - Claudia Lenti (2014)

La vita se pone dulce en 2025

by Ernesto Dei Tigli

A veces me despierto buscándote, llamándote, y sin querer
Sueño encontrarte

Ahora sonfrecuentes las veces que
Te he vuelto a ver, y sin querer
Vuelvo a pensarte

No encuentro la manera de olvidar tu nombre y llevo tu imagen tatuada en mi mente

Darí­a todo por no recordarte

Y ahora solo lloro por cada rincón
Y a diario se marchita más mi corazón
De amarte...

Nada es como antes pero sigo siendo yo la misma
Esa mujer que te sueña en las noches
Y te sigue pensando

Quiero hacerte el amor
Hoy quiero estar contigo (voglio fare l'amore)

Quiero ser de ti
Y amarte a mi manera (dolce vita)
Hoooo

Nada es como antes pero sigo siendo yo
La dueña de tu corazón

Nada es como antes pero
Pero sigues siendo tu
Y no me importa la razón

Andaré tu camino
Estaré contigo
A donde vallas Te seguiré
Pues te sigo pensando
Y te sueño en mis noches

Hey papi mira I got something to tell you baby
Soy la capa de sabor, un italiana lady
Oglío picante en la boca
Che ti brucia e saltimbocca
No ti piace mi dispiace
I always did it my way

Ti voglio bene assai
Con locura y no me cabe duda
No quiero recordarte pero me tiene

Ya tu sabes
Sono fiera
La italiana de la salsa
Y tu veras

Who's this Italiana
Say she moves like a Cubana
Pepperoncino en la pista
Lleva toda la comida
Her seeds will make you burn
She's got the city dancing turns

C'est que du Love pour Montreal

Come on papi I know that you love me
Can't deny it, that you want me
You got Lenti in that beat
Isla Bonita type of heat
I'm the 8 to your 5-6-7
I'm the temptation that brings you to heaven

Lasho on the beat
Y controlando

Loren, Cardinale & Italia

It is no secret that the star was named after one of her mother’s favorite Italian actresses, Claudia Cardinale. Lenti inevitably grew up idolizing Cardinale, as well as her more famous colleague, Sofia Loren. Inspired by these idols, not just for their natural beauty, but more so for their strength to brace through taboos in a time where it was hardly possible, the singer continues to do the same. It is for this reason that 2025 is presenting itself to be an old Hollywood type of vibe for Lenti. Lenti plans to return to Italy again in 2025, where she will be spending time with family.

Casting call for Lenti’s next video

by Santina Coppola

Although Lenti’s visit to Havana is for her first song of 2025, Sin Querer, she is currently holding a casting call for dancers for the next project. Keeping it under wraps for now, the only hint we were able to get was that it will be another hot single ready for the Summer of 2025.

CINEMA

Scripts & Videos

Claudia Lenti has proven time and time again to be a creative beyond imaginable heights. Driven by her own desire to surpass herself, she is always involved in the entire process of her music, from pen and paper all the way to the screen. She has even been contracted a few times to draft scripts for her fellow stars. She told US Daily that she lives for the creation process more than the final product.

What’s next?

by JoJo CloClo

Claudia says she is continuously working on new music. She plans on staying consistent and grateful for the ability to live her dreams. As an Aquarius, and as a firm believer of a greater power, be it God and his universe of magical coincidences, Lenti remains with one foot floating on a cloud of wishes, while the other does the leg work on earth. As one of her favorite quotes says, “Finché c’è vita, c’è speranza.”
